South-Carolina GAZETTE

[Numb. 962.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By His Excellency

JAMES GLEN, Esq;

Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over His Majesty's said Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it pleased Almighty God, at whose Command the Winds blow and lift up the Waves of the Sea, for the Punishment of our manifold Transgressions, lately to visit this Province with a terrible Tempest and Inundation; Yet, of his infinite Goodness, in the midst of deserved Wrath, to turn from the Fierceness of his Anger, and to remember Mercy, by rebuking the Winds and the Sea, and stilling the Rage thereof, and thereby saving us from imminent and otherwise unavoidable Destruction: AND WHEREAS It hath pleased him to continue to be gracious to us, by sending favourable Weather since, for ripening and gathering in the remaining Fruits of the Earth; And also, by blessing the Inhabitants with a greater Share of Health than they usually enjoy at this Season of the Year: And as all Persons in general must have been sensible of the visible Interposition of Providence in our Deliverance, and of God's great Mercies towards us, it is the Duty of All, to make their general and grateful Acknowledgements for the same, by paying the Tribute of their joint and just Praises, and by offering up the Sacrifice of a general and public Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his Goodness. I have therefore thought and I do hereby appoint Thursday the Twenty-third Instant, for that Purpose. WILLING and strictly REQUIRING all manner of Persons to observe the same in the most solemn and religious manner, as they tender the Divine Favour and Protection, and as they would avoid such Punishment as may be lawfully inflicted upon all who refuse or neglect to do so.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of His Majesty's said Province, at the Council-Chamber in Charles-Town, this Fifteenth Day of November, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-two, and in the Twenty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
William Rucknet, for George Gabriel Powell, Esq; Dep. Secr.

JAMES GLEN.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

A Letter from VIRGINIA.

I now let you see the most satisfactory account I am able, of the dilemma which you have heard me mention with wonder.

A negro, [illegible] early, [illegible] was detected in the act of murdering the family [illegible] negro [illegible] man, [illegible] of the [illegible] A negro girl [illegible] was black behind [illegible] Proof stronger than any [illegible] [illegible] never other negro was like other negroes, [illegible] remarkably white, with [illegible] reached as far [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

From England you're fraught with enchanted wares,
If your fine goes about the devil may care;
Who rid o'er my cobbles, need ne'er be afraid,
As fast I dispatch at but what my purse had.
Derry down, &c.

To this Fellow Poet was prudent withdrew all,
Most loudly O! Billet, I pray, will you call?
'Our Author's ill-natur'd, may chance we shall hear,
By Jingo, I swear, they deserve to be cropt.
Derry down, &c.

Let none nobly spotless the strength of my wrath;
But if any such wretch shou'd presume this,
May they die in a cough, Prodcudo pudorem,
And while they're a longing, the [illegible] 'em.
Derry down, &c.

Prodcudo pudorem! o'er fame's glorious dance,
Both Latin and Dutch in your paper at once!
Pray good Mr. Printer, what do ye mean?
When your print heathen lang-syne, was then d'ye imagine.
Derry down, &c.

One plain advertisement I bid you your Dutch,
Nay, the latter therein ev'n could have prattled me much;
And now you come in with your Latin and Greek;
If you please any more I'll with both shall I shall bilk 'em.
Derry down, &c.

I pray, gentle Reader, be not offended,
For this little matter is eafily mended;
The Latin 's a present, and then I translate it;
You'll know if a present is good, unless you've one in it?
Derry down, &c.

If you think we shall meet with Encouragement, pray signify as much, by a Line directed to us in a Cock-Loft in the Crown-Inn, where are, Sir,

Your most humble Servants,

Abraham Anchorsmith,
Benjamin Bellows,
